

WAVE | IMG

THE NEXUS OF ENTERTAINMENT, SPORTS & FASHION

WME | IMG and its clients have been a force of innovation across entertainment, sports and fashion for over a century. We have helped our clients thrive in the face of disruption while setting trends in talent representation, marketing and sponsorship; inspiring industry change in events and licensing; and helping reshape the digital landscape. As technology further shifts the balance of power in media and puts more power in the hands of the creator, WME | IMG is uniquely positioned at the nexus of entertainment, sports and fashion to create powerful opportunities for our clients and partners across the globe.

FASHION

We are an international leader in talent discovery and management, widely recognized for our diverse roster of models, as well as a portfolio of leading image makers

We manage the careers of a diverse roster of clients that includes 15 of the 20 highest paid models as listed by Forbes, as well as a group of photographers, artists and other image makers whose work is helping to define today's creative culture.

We own and operate fashion's premier events from New York Fashion Week: The Shows and MADE to Australia and Shenzhen Fashion Weeks.

SPORTS

WAE | IMG

We produce more than 52,000 hours of sports programming every year, distributed across television, radio, broadband, mobile, in-flight and in-ship.

WME|IMG

We represent a powerful and diverse roster of artists and creators across every entertainment vertical including motion picture, television, music, books, theater and digital. We also curate content, events and experiences that bring our artists' work and passions to life

Our clients shape culture, entertain the world, ignite conversation, and bring people together through their art. With our diverse network of resources and relationships, we help clients navigate the evolving media landscape to make transformative creative decisions and build meaningful career platforms.

ENTERTAINMENT

In 2015 WME | IMG bought Miss Universe Organisation, which encompasses the Miss Universe, Miss USA and Miss Teen USA pageants.

WME | IMG has begun to expand the media capacity of Miss Universe, developing apps and additional content, as the pageant becomes a 365-day experience.

WME | IMG MISS UNIVERSE

IMG Productions has been working closely with Miss Universe for the event in Manila, including providing facilities and crew for the digital production.

We are a fully serviced production unit based in Singapore with a wealth of international knowledge and experience in both OB and studio programming.

IMG Productions can also call on the expertise from across the WME | IMG network to deliver world-class shows and content.
